

Individual Book Lesson Plan

Goals:

- To motivate students to want to write – building self-esteem and pride
- To integrate the Studenttreasures® Publishing Project with the five step writing process
- To align the publishing process with your curriculum by incorporating your Language Arts Writing Standards, various teaching units, subjects, theme topics and genres

Objective: The student will create his/her own full-color hardbound book!

Resources:

Supplied by Studenttreasures® Publishing:

- Publishing Kit to create a hardbound book
- Project Coordinator Sheet to conduct project
- Author Instructions on back of publishing kit
- Check out our How-To-Video at www.studenttreasures.com/teacherslounge

Additional Supplies Needed:

- Black Ink for writing or...
- Computer Lab for typing
- Water Based Markers for illustrating

• Lesson Procedure:

- Select Topic – Use various methods for each student to decide on a topic; i.e. brainstorming, research, teaching unit tie-in. You can also go to www.studenttreasures.com/teacherslounge for topic ideas or themes, writing prompts and FAQ's
- Pre-write independent ideas for a story/narratives that includes setting, plot, characters, and the problem/ solution
- Complete the First Text Draft – use scratch paper; saving manuscript pages for final submission
- Edit and Review the first Text Draft – check for spelling, punctuation, and grammar. Encourage collaboration - Involve all classmates, parents, volunteers
- Complete First Illustration Draft – use scratch paper, saving the manuscript pages for final submission - Important – for successful tips, please follow the Teacher's Guide
- Proofread – Final check of all first drafts. All work should now be to the satisfaction of the author
- Complete Final Text on Manuscript Pages: Writing ideas into paragraph form
- Complete Final Illustrations - the corresponding illustration to a page of text should be drawn on the back of the previous text page
- Publish – Publish for an audience. Prepare to ship materials to publisher by following the instructions on the Project Coordinator Sheet

Reflection/Celebration:

- Highlight student achievement with a Publishing Party - Open House, Author's Tea, Author's Book Signing, or Ice Cream Social
- Each student can proudly read their book aloud to classmates and family. This can be a powerful inspiration and motivating exercise when teaching literacy.
- Step back, smile! You have just helped create a lifelong memory for your students.
